

Stop no. 4 – Village „Rez“

This place is interesting for its history. Evident interventions to the local countryside such as for example small dams, dips or local names like „Ziduv Hill“, „Stimberk“ and „Hradisko“ say about the possible housing development in the past. There is a presumption that there was a village called „Rez“, about which is written in the historical records last time in 1398.